This Day in Music
For June 13, 2006
From VNU Entertainment News Wire

2005 - Canada's largest specialist music retailer HMV Canada pulls all of Alanis Morissette's products from its shelves in protest to a North American deal that gives Starbucks six-weeks exclusive rights to sell Morissette's new Maverick album, an acoustic re-issue of her 1995 hit "Jagged Little Pill."

2005 - Pop superstar Michael Jackson is found not guilty on all counts of his child molestation trial in Santa Maria, California. Jackson, 46, had been charged with molesting a 13-year-old cancer survivor in 2003 - serving him wine and conspiring to hold the boy and his family hostage at his Neverland estate in order to get them to debut a television documentary recording artist of the century."

2000 - Rapper Jamal "Rhyme" Barrow is indicted for attempted murder in the
